GOV. EASLEY REAPPOINTS EMORY TO SHERIFFS' EDUCATION AND TRAINING STANDARDS COMMISSION

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley reappointed Frank E. Emory of Wilson to the North Carolina Sheriffs' Education and Training Standards Commission.

Emory is chairman of the Wilson County Board of Commissioners. He is a retired public school teacher and agricultural agent. He is a member of Barton College Trusteeship Committee and volunteers with the WilMed Hospice. Emory received his bachelor's degree in agriculture from N.C. A&T State University and his master's degree in adult education and economics from N.C. State University.

The commission establishes and maintains the minimum employment, certification and training standards for all deputy sheriffs and jailers in N.C. There are 17 members on the commission, each serving a two-year term. The governor appoints one member.
